[4] SDG4: Quality Education

[4.3.4] Does your university as a body undertake educational outreach activities (e.g. tailored lectures or demonstrations) beyond campus, e.g. in local schools, in the community, including voluntary student-run schemes?

Description: Imam Alkadhim University College hosts numerous events those are:

1. Lectures in community: Imam AlKadhim College Participates in a Seminar on the Code of Jurisprudence Rulings at the Holy Al-Kadhimiya Shrine in cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Holy Al-Kadhimiya Shrine, participated in organizing an awareness seminar for the shrine's personnel. The seminar addressed the Code of Jurisprudence Rulings on Personal Status Matters according to the Ja'fari School of Thought.

2. Lecture and Demonstration in community: Professors and students from the Department of Media at Imam Alkadhim College launched an on-the-ground awareness campaign, which included distributing trash bags and instructional posters. The campaign aimed to promote a culture of cleanliness, protect the environment, and reinforce positive behaviors among pilgrims during the pilgrimage to Imam Hussein (pbu). Additionally, the college dedicated its fleet of vehicles to transport pilgrims to Holy Karbala, a step designed to ease the strain of travel and provide logistical support to the pilgrims.

3. Lectures and event in school: The Department of Quranic Sciences and Hadith at Imam AlKadhim College organized a scientific field visit for its students to a number of secondary and middle schools—including Al-Jundi Al-Basil Secondary School for High Achievers, Al-Raya Middle School for Girls, and Al-I'tizaz Secondary School. The visit was conducted under the supervision of the Head of the Department, Asst. Prof. Dr. Zahra Ahmed Khudair, accompanied by several faculty members. The visit included observing the practical teaching sessions (field training) of the participating students for the current academic year, attending classes, and reviewing the various teaching methods and modern techniques implemented in middle and secondary schools.

4. The "Media Ambassadors" Volunteer Team at Imam AlKadhim College organized a volunteer humanitarian campaign to distribute food baskets to underprivileged families. The campaign was launched with the active participation of faculty members and students from the Department of Media. The baskets contained essential food items aimed at easing the financial burden on families in need. The campaign sought to achieve several key objectives, including:

1. Promoting social solidarity among members of the community.
2. Supporting underprivileged families and meeting their basic needs.
3. Reinforcing humanitarian values inspired by Islamic teachings.
4. Encouraging students and youth to engage in volunteer work and instilling a culture of giving.

Contributing to Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) by working to eliminate hunger and foster community partnerships.

5. Faculty members and staff from Imam AlKadhim College provided services to the crowds of pilgrims visiting Imam Al-Kadhim (pbu). The procession's (Mowkeb) initiatives included distributing food and drinks, as well as delivering religious and social awareness messages that highlighted the importance of the occasion and reinforced the noble values it embodies. Additionally, the organizers launched a special awareness campaign focused on environmental protection and maintaining street cleanliness, emphasizing the importance of upholding civilized behaviors that reflect a positive image of Iraqi society.
